For over three decades, the Perks Group program has connected millions of members with nationwide savings on travel, luxury items, everyday necessities, and more. Because of their wide network and dedication to improving their offerings, medical affiliations like Tampa General Hospital and the Bethesda Health Group have renewed services for five years or more.

The Perks Group network is one of the broadest and most inclusive affinity programs in operation today, and it's retained members across the country in a variety of industries. Through Perks, businesses and professional organizations give their employees access to an ongoing list of deals and discounts that can be used online and in brick-and-mortar stores in all fifty states.

Affinity groups offer a unique program formed around a shared interest or common goal, which is discounted purchases in the case of Perks Group. The entire Perks organization is recognized as an industry leader in affinity programs with millions of members and new merchants signing up each week. And all members need to do is login to their PerksConnection hub and receive a refreshed list of available deals. In many PerksGroup reviews, consumers mention the connections merchants make with members through their exclusive deals.

With ongoing deals from coast to coast, members get access to real, beneficial savings at home and on the road when accessing their hub through an internet connection. The Perks Group program provides one of the nation's largest and most sought-after network of merchants that provide exclusive discounts on their name brand products.

Perks gathers a variety of savings from many different merchants so they can cater to a range of member needs. They offer national discounts to students, alumni, and professionals from many job fields. The program also retains many of its members in the medical field, some who have now renewed their membership for five years or more. Perks Group Reviews often reference customer satisfaction.
